REEVES-SMITH George

(1830 - 1897) [1]

(GB)

Biography

George REEVES-SMITH was a photographer residing in Scarborough (UK). He was a partner of Oliver SARONY, a well-known Canadian-British photographer at the time.

SARONY, in turn, had a business relationship with Henry VAN DER WEYDE, a Dutch-US photographer.

SARONY and VAN DER WEYDE each held patents, and are presumably the inventors of the patent application filed by REEVES-SMITH in Luxembourg.

[1] FamilySearch database (P4PN-QR5) (to be confirmed)